SUPERVISED RELEASE

Upon release from imprisonment, you will be on supervised release for a term of :

3 years.

MANDATORY CONDITIONS

1. You must not commit another federal, state or local crime.
2. ☐ You must make restitution in accordance with sections 3663 and 3663A, or any other statute authorizing a sentence of restitution. (check if applicable)
3. You must not unlawfully possess a controlled substance.
4. You must refrain from any unlawful use of a controlled substance. You must submit to one drug test within 15 days of release from imprisonment and at least two periodic drug tests thereafter, as determined by the court.
☐ The above drug testing condition is suspended, based on the court's determination that you pose a low risk of future substance abuse. (check if applicable)
5. ☒ You must cooperate in the collection of DNA as directed by the probation officer. (check if applicable)
6. ☒ You must comply with the requirements of the Sex Offender Registration and Notification Act (34 U.S.C. § 20901, et seq.) as directed by the probation officer, the Bureau of Prisons, or any state sex offender registration agency in which you reside, work, are a student, or were convicted of a qualifying offense. (check if applicable)
7. ☐ You must participate in an approved program for domestic violence. (check if applicable)

You must comply with the standard conditions that have been adopted by this court as well as with any other conditions on the attached page.

DEFENDANT: CARL RAY KENNEDY
CASE NUMBER: DVAW418CR000033-001STANDARD CONDITIONS OF SUPERVISION

As part of your supervised release, you must comply with the following standard conditions of supervision. These conditions are imposed because they establish the basic expectations for your behavior while on supervision and identify the minimum tools needed by probation officers to keep informed, report to the court about, and bring about improvements in your conduct and condition.

1. You must report to the probation office in the federal judicial district where you are authorized to reside within 72 hours of your release from imprisonment, unless the probation officer instructs you to report to a different probation office or within a different time frame.
2. After initially reporting to the probation office, you will receive instructions from the court or the probation officer about how and when you must report to the probation officer, and you must report to the probation officer as instructed.
3. You must not knowingly leave the federal judicial district where you are authorized to reside without first getting permission from the court or the probation officer.
4. You must answer truthfully the questions asked by your probation officer.
5. You must live at a place approved by the probation officer. If you plan to change where you live or anything about your living arrangements (such as the people you live with), you must notify the probation officer at least 10 days before the change. If notifying the probation officer in advance is not possible due to unanticipated circumstances, you must notify the probation officer within 72 hours of becoming aware of a change or expected change.
6. You must allow the probation officer to visit you at any time at your home or elsewhere, and you must permit the probation officer to take any items prohibited by the conditions of your supervision that he or she observes in plain view.
7. You must work full time (at least 30 hours per week) at a lawful type of employment, unless the probation officer excuses you from doing so. If you do not have full-time employment you must try to find full-time employment, unless the probation officer excuses you from doing so. If you plan to change where you work or anything about your work (such as your position or your job responsibilities), you must notify the probation officer at least 10 days before the change. If notifying the probation officer at least 10 days in advance is not possible due to unanticipated circumstances, you must notify the probation officer within 72 hours of becoming aware of a change or expected change.
8. You must not communicate or interact with someone you know is engaged in criminal activity. If you know someone has been convicted of a felony, you must not knowingly communicate or interact with that person without first getting the permission of the probation officer.
9. If you are arrested or questioned by a law enforcement officer, you must notify the probation officer within 72 hours.
10. You must not own, possess, or have access to a firearm, ammunition, destructive device, or dangerous weapon (i.e., anything that was designed, or was modified for, the specific purpose of causing bodily injury or death to another person such as nunchakus or tasers).
11. You must not act or make any agreement with a law enforcement agency to act as a confidential human source or informant without first getting the permission of the court.
12. If the probation officer determines that you pose a risk to another person (including an organization), the probation officer may require you to notify the person about the risk and you must comply with that instruction. The probation officer may contact the person and confirm that you have notified the person about the risk.
13. You must follow the instructions of the probation officer related to the conditions of supervision.

U.S. Probation Office Use Only

A U.S. probation officer has instructed me on the conditions specified by the court and has provided me with a written copy of this judgment containing these conditions. For further information regarding these conditions, see Overview of Probation and Supervised Release Conditions, available at: www.uscourts.gov.

DEFENDANT: CARL RAY KENNEDY
CASE NUMBER: DVAW418CR000033-001Judgment-Page 5 of 8SPECIAL CONDITIONS OF SUPERVISION

1. The defendant shall pay any special assessment that is imposed by this judgment.
2. The defendant shall register with all local and state sex offender registration agencies in any jurisdiction where the defendant resides, is employed, carries a vocation, is a student, or is otherwise required to register by SORNA.
3. The defendant shall participate in a program of testing and treatment for substance abuse, as approved by the probation officer, until such time as the defendant has satisfied all requirements of the program.
4. The defendant shall participate in a program of mental health treatment for domestic violence, as approved by the probation officer, until such time as the defendant has satisfied all requirements of the program.
5. The defendant shall reside in a residence free of firearms, ammunition, destructive devices and dangerous weapons.
6. The defendant shall submit his person, property, house, residence, vehicle, papers, [computers as defined in 18 U.S.C. § 1030(e)(1), other electronic communications or data storage devices or media], or office, to a search conducted by a United States probation officer. Failure to submit to a search may be grounds for revocation of release. The defendant shall warn any other occupants that the premises may be subject to searches pursuant to this condition. An officer may conduct a search pursuant to this condition only when reasonable suspicion exists that the defendant has violated a condition of his supervision and that the areas to be searched contain evidence of this violation.
7. The defendant shall not purchase, possess, use or administer any alcohol, or frequent any businesses whose primary function is to serve alcoholic beverages.
8. The defendant shall not contact or communicate, directly or indirectly, with persons less than 18 years of age ("minors"). This includes communication by any means, including verbal, written, telephonic, electronic or other communications. The prohibition against communication with minors is intentionally wide-ranging, encompassing the transmission of any information, whether by audio, video, digital or other means. It includes, but is not limited to, any communications via the Internet, cellular phone, any cellular phone or computer application, text message, social media, social networking website, blog, peer to peer file sharing network or other method. This provision does not encompass minors working as waiters, cashiers, ticket vendors, and similar service positions with whom the defendant must deal in order to obtain ordinary and usual commercial services.
9. The defendant is authorized contact with minors 1) who are relatives of the defendant; 2) who have familial relations with relatives of the defendant; or 3) who have been identified and approved by the U.S. Probation Officer. The contact may occur only in the presence of another adult and with the prior approval of the probation officer. In considering approval of such contact, the probation officer should make an individualized inquiry and a particularized showing of need for the condition.
10. The defendant's residence and employment shall be approved by the probation officer. Any proposed change in residence or employment must be provided to the probation officer at least 10 days prior to the change and must be approved before the change may take place.
11. The defendant shall submit to an evaluation by a qualified mental health professional, approved by the probation officer, who is experienced in the treatment of sexual offenders. The defendant shall take all medications reasonably related to his condition, complete all treatment recommendations, and abide by all rules, requirements, and conditions imposed by the treatment provider until discharged from treatment by the provider.
12. The defendant shall submit to risk assessments and psychological and physiological testing, which may include but is not limited to polygraph or plethysmograph examinations or other specific tests to monitor the defendant's compliance.
13. The defendant shall notify employers, family members, and others with whom the defendant has regular contact of the defendant's sex offender conditions and that the defendant is under the supervision of the probation officer.
14. The defendant shall contact the probation officer within 72 hours of establishing an ongoing romantic relationship with another individual and provide the probation officer with information about the other party. The defendant shall also inform the other party of his prior criminal history concerning sex offenses.
15. The defendant shall not frequent any business whose primary function is to serve alcoholic beverages, if, according to a qualified sex offender treatment provider, such activity may interfere with an ongoing treatment regimen.
